RICKY EGOS, MM-MIT

Extension Director

This Institution

Dear Dir. Egos,

Relative to the SAFES on-going extension projects implemented in San Miguel, Zamboanga del Sur. As programmed, each of the assigned project members who are to monitor implementation and progress of the project has scheduled a project site visit once a week on faculty's vacant time. For this "Quail Egg Contract Growing" project the following faculty members were assigned as project lead monitor and partner (co-monitor) to other sites covered for the projects. Listed below:

Faculty/Project Members	Lead Monitor Assigned	As Assistant/ assignment
1. Zandra Quirante (Project Leader)	- San Isidro (All barangays)	- Dao-an
2. Jean Rose Cuezon	- Dumalian	- San Isidro
3. Emelyn Tormes	- Laperian	- Mati
4. Liezel M. Caranto	- Mati	- San Isidro
5. Kim M. Borja	- Dao-an	- Dumalian

At present, the project team is monitoring Dumalian and San Isidro for the projects already in-placed to these two communities. Other sites (Laperian, Dao-an, and Mati) are on their preparation for the turn-over of "ready-to-lay" scheduled also this month of February. Likewise, the above faculty are performing and carrying out different extension activities on their free time.

Anent to this, the undersigned would like to request support on transportation and communication allowances for the project implementers. Our monitoring are regularly scheduled every Wednesday and/or Friday, we hope that a vehicle can be made available during this period for the above activities. Likewise, we would like to request reimbursements (if possible) of the travelling expenses incurred during previous activities. Please note, transportation and communication allowances were included in the proposal, hence, they can be charged against the project.

Anticipating for your positive response. Thank you and Godspeed!

Truly yours,

ZANDRA A. QUIRANTE, MAgDev

Project Leader
