

One Day training Workshop on Vermicomposting

The JHCSC Vice President for Academic Affairs Dr. Mary Jocelyn V. Battung, giving her message during the opening program of One Day Training-Workshop on Vermicomposting at SAFES. All participants are enjoy at the same time inspired while listening to the speaker.

The Participants from Barangay Laperian during the Training-Workshop on Vermicomposting, giving their sweet smiles and Barangay clap to the Speaker.

Miss Reymalyn Ragmac, one of the lecturers about Vermicomposting from the School of Agriculture Forestry and Environmental Studies. She really explained well her topics to the farmers of barangay Laperian, as you can see she did it with action.

The participants are eager to learn about vermicomposting, some of them jot down all the important matters for their references.

Mrs. Magdalena Ragmac, another lecturer about vermicomposting. She explained the importance and benefits of using organic fertilizers.

The Barangay Laperian Farmers, actual hands on, on how to make Vermicompost and listened very well to the lecturer Mrs. Ragmac on how to harvest the Vermi...

The participants answering the evaluation sheet after the Training-Workshop of Vermicomposting...

Take a pose during the awarding of Certificate of Recognition to J.H. CERILLES STATE COLLEGE for conducting One Day Training-Workshop on Vermicomposting to the Barangay Laperian Folks as one of the recipients of JHCSC TABANG Extension Program, through the Extension and Community Services. The Barangay Captain Hon. Ojas at the center, Extension Director Mr. Gumintad at the left side and Mrs. Ragsmac, the lecturer at the right side.

The Participants holding their Certificate of Participation together with the Barangay officials, Extension Director, Staff and Lecturer during the awarding ceremony.